NOTICE TO PYTHIANS

The next regular convention of Livingstone Lodge No. 22 will be held on Monday night next, December 30th, instead of Friday the 27th. The meeting will convene at 7 o'clock.

TO ORGANIZE SUNSHINE CLUB

A meeting is called to be held in the Elks' hall on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a local branch of the Sunshine Club.

The main object will be to centralize the activities of administering relief, which at present is being administered by various organizations, including the town council, the Elks and other fraternal organizations, and there is every likelihood that considerable overlapping is taking place.

With an organization such as the Sunshine Club, such overlapping can be offset, and all organizations or individuals feeling disposed to help in any way could place their contributions with the Sunshine Club with assurance that proper distribution will be made.

It is hoped that every citizen interested will make an effort to attend this meeting.

UNION COMMUNITY TREAT

The annual treat to the kiddies of the town, under the auspices of the Blairmore Local Union, was held at the Opera house, on Monday evening, when upwards of six hundred kiddies under the age of thirteen were greeted by Santa Claus, who handed to each parcel containing confections, nuts, etc.

A splendid programme of songs, music, recitations and drills was rendered by children of the school and much enjoyed.

The committee in charge desire through The Enterprise to thank all donors and others who in various ways assisted towards making this annual affair a success.

FORMER BLAIRMORE BOY INJURED IN HOCKEY

Frank McLeod, star hockey player for Macleod last year, who is playing for High River this year, suffered serious internal injuries in the first game of the season at High River on Friday last. It seems he was playing a wing position and when endeavoring to score on a rebound he collided with the goal with such force that he broke the top bar of the goal frame, sustaining internal injuries which it is feared will put him out of the game for the rest of the winter and possibly forever.

RAMSAY MACDONALD

Have you noticed the following things said by that remarkable English Prime Minister when here among us:

"When I reached Washington I called on a man whom I found working with his coat off.

"I said, 'Hello, what are you doing?' He said 'I am blazing a trail for peace.' And I said, 'I have come to help.' And he said, 'My name is Herbert Hoover—who are you?'

"'Oh,' I said, 'My name is Macdonald.' Then both of us said 'Have you any objection to my using my axe alongside of yours—not to enrich our respective woodpiles, but that together we may cut the trail a bit broader, so that more people and more nations, because of our working side by side, shall find it easier to pursue the path we are opening up?'

"Europe today tells its political leaders there are risks in peace. It knows the assumptions made between one nation and others that they are to conduct their affairs in sincerity and justice, do lay the believing nation open to a certain amount of risk.

I will take it! I will take it!

"If I build ship after ship I would be taking the risk of war. I take the risk of assuming you are men of your word. I am taking the risk of peace which is temporary and in the end I will get a permanent peace.

"Every nation knows that by competition in armaments it has failed to get security.

"We are not to build walls that exclude each other, but temples that will attract one another.

"The understanding we have been trying to establish will be incomplete until it has become the common possession of all the nations on the face of the earth."—U.S. Exchange.

Mayor A. U. G. Bury of Edmonton, and former M.P. for East Edmonton, may be the next Conservative organizer for the province, according to the Edmonton Journal. The mayor, who is leaving the civic chair at the end of the year, refused, however, to confirm the report. "I have no official information on the suggestion, say more than I am going to heaven," he said. The Journal continues: "While it is generally assumed that Mr. Bury will be the Conservative candidate for East Edmonton in the next general election, it is quite likely that he will carry on work for the party in the province during the interval."

According to the Lethbridge Herald, Mr. Eric Lancaster, former vice-principal of the Blairmore Schools, and for a time a writer for the Herald, who went east some time ago to accept a position on the editorial staff of the Toronto Daily Star, has transferred to Montreal, where he is now managing editor of the Montreal Witness, John Redpath Dougall's paper.

Peace On Earth, Goodwill Toward Men

"Interdependence," a monthly review published by the League of Nations Society, in Canada, has rendered a real service to Canada, and incidentally to the cause of world peace, by printing its current issue the complete text of the magnificently inspiring speech delivered by the Rt. Hon. J. Ramsay MacDonald, at the state dinner tendered him by the Government of Canada, in the House of Commons at Ottawa. Mr. MacDonald's fine message to the Canadian people, containing such a sincere and impassioned plea for international understanding and a will to peace, was listened to over the radio by hundreds of thousands of people in this country and the United States. That national service is now strengthened by the reprint of the full text of Mr. MacDonald's speech, thus enabling people to read this message again and ponder over it at their leisure.

This same issue of "Interdependence," which, by the way, is distributed to members of the League of Nations Society throughout Canada, or can be had for the trifling subscription price of one dollar a year, also contains the text of the address given by Roch Pinard, the 18-year-old Quebec boy, who won the International Oratorical Contest, held at Washington, D.C., before President Hoover, in October last. The subject of Roch Pinard's address was "Canada Among the Nations," and like Premier MacDonald's speech, is one well worthy of the attention of the people of this country. The address is a study in Canadian pride in and love of our country, and is equally important, and destined to that pride and love, it will further impress upon all readers the absolute necessity for the cultivation of understanding and goodwill among all classes of the Canadian population, based on knowledge, which alone can render ineffective those periodical appeals to passion and prejudices through which designing persons seek to sway the emotions of our people. Mutual understanding, mutual goodwill, mutual appreciation of each other's good qualities, must exist as the basis of peace and cordiality of relations among the various races which make up Canada's cosmopolitan population.

Domestic peace in Canada, it is hardly necessary to say, is the first requirement if this Dominion is to successfully play the role of peace protagonist among all the nations, and an effective member of the League of Nations. From the inception of the League of Nations, Canada has been one of its most influential members. The influence of this Dominion in the councils of the nations is far greater than its population and wealth and world power would accord to it. That influence radiates from the successes already achieved by Canada in solving for itself some of the most vexing problems now troubling older countries. That influence can be retained and further extended to the extent only that Canadians themselves put into every day practice those rules of conduct which the maintenance of peace among all nations demands will be observed.

Canada stands for world peace. This ideal is recognized by all nations. It is also recognized that as a people we have no ulterior motives in our membership in the League of Nations; that our presence there is solely from a desire to serve others and further the cause of international goodwill and world peace. As a people we unhesitatingly and uncomplainingly bore our burden when an unwelcome war was forced upon mankind. We gave in untried measure, and we are paying our own bills without asking help from anybody. This is recognized and appreciated by other nations, and our influence is correspondingly great. So, too, is our responsibility. We must, therefore, first of all be true to ourselves and to those ideals we advocate for adoption by all other peoples and nations.

Finally, "Interdependence" notes with satisfaction the offer of Premier Mackenzie King to provide suitable copies of the Bland-Kellogg pact lawing peace to Provincial Departments of Education which will undertake to distribute them to the schools, and to church which will give it a place in their edifices. unquestionably the future peace of the world depends on the determination in the minds of the people, consequently through the schools and churches can the next generation be best reached. The pact, to which Canada's signature is attached, outlawing war as an instrument of national policy, should be a place of honor in walls of every church and school throughout this broad Dominion. It is a message of "Peace on earth, goodwill toward men."

Congratulates Winner

Herman Treille Is Pleased That Red Spring Reward Wheat Takes Highest Honors

"Nobody is more pleased than I am over the fact that Joseph Smith, of Wolf Creek, Alberta, has won the world's wheat championship at Chicago," declared Herman Treille, of Wembley, Peace River, former holder of the championship. "I am particularly pleased that Red Spring Reward wheat, which I raised,

It was recalled by Mr. Treille that the district where the championship wheat was grown was not considered previously as a particularly good wheat country. The success attained by Mr. Smith, he added, showed that varieties of grain can be adapted for any conditions in Alberta and are bound to prove successful if the experiments are made by persons with the qualifications of the 1929 champion.

Making Survey For Gibraltar Tunnel

Work Likely To Involve Large Political As Well As Engineering Features

The work of examining the rock of the Straits of Gibraltar for a tunnel between Europe and Africa is under way, but while the attention of the world is focused on its structural problems, the tunnel also has involved political and engineering features.

During the World War the captain general at Cadiz, who is now Premier Primo de Rivera, made a speech suggesting that Spain join the war on the side of the allies and that in return for this England should give Gibraltar back to Spain. The captain general lost his position for making this speech an official. This was Primo de Rivera's first political speech.

When Primo de Rivera became dictator in 1923, no one remembered the action of the former captain general at Cadiz. Spain always has had a secret desire to get Gibraltar back and it is expected the human project will be an excuse to reopen the subject. It is obvious that if the premier made an arrangement to give Gibraltar back it would be an achievement that Spain never would forget.

A retrenchment program has been announced for Spain, and it is doubted that it would spend money of the tunnel for years. It is not expected that England would part with Gibraltar, but if the tunnel leads to the reopening of negotiations by which Spain would regain possession on the basis of a lease for 100 or 500 years, possibly with a renewal option, there would be great rejoicing at Madrid.

Pirates Plans Frustrated

Chinese Pirates Are Captured By Aid Of Wireless

The alertness of a wireless operator prevented the escape of Chinese pirates who killed the third officer of the steamer, "Halichoer," attempted to loot the vessel and finally set fire to it. Two British warships, the "Serpent" and "Sterling," arrived in answer to the "Halichoer's" SOS, extinguished the fire and captured the pirates before they could get away. The two war craft towed the "Halichoer" to Hong Kong, with all the pirates prisoners aboard.

The bandits la'd at their plans according to the regular system. They apparently still hoped to gain control, after which they would plunder and repudiate their captives.

Early this morning they swarmed out and attacked the bridge. Members of the crew returned the fire and repulsed them. Third Officer K. A. Woodward died as the result of wounds and First Officer R. Perry also was wounded. Perry had been made to do for international finances what the League does for international law. If the bank's beginnings are somewhat humble, there is no telling what place it may some day come to hold in maintaining the peaceful alliance of all international relations.

Advertising Canadian Apples

British Papers Urge People To Buy More Of Them

British doctors must be good felons. They have uttered no word of protest against the tremendous influx of Canadian apples, although every season Canada is sending Great Britain about 150,000,000 pounds of apples.

From being disturbed over this Canadian outpouring to keep the customer away, they are doubtless contributing handsomely in the form of taxes paid for the public benefit.

At the Empire Marketing Board, at the present time in the daily newspapers, display advertisements are urging the British consumer to "Buy Canadian Apples." Before initiating the campaign through the daily papers, the Empire Marketing Board inserted advertisements in the leading trade papers in Great Britain with the object of preparing the fruit trade for an increased demand for Canadian apples. In addition to the general advertisement in the papers with an aggregate circulation of nearly nineteen million readers, the Empire Marketing Board is sending out an instructive pamphlet telling about Canadian apples from the time when the sturdy Scottish settler at Iroquois, John Macintosh, in 1796, produced the first famous McIntosh Red. The pamphlet includes a number of recipes for serving Canadian apples in puddings, pies, tarts and other dishes.

There is in the proceedings at the Bank of Montreal a meeting abundant in the spirit of the Empire Marketing Board, which will be presided over by Mr. Mackenzie said, "will be something quiet while we are getting back to realities, the realities in both Europe and Canada and the United States afford firm basis for a healthy optimism."

General Conditions Fundamentally Sound

Sir Charles Gordon, President, at Annual Meeting of Bank of Montreal. Drawn Attention to Good Services Made by Canada During Recent Years.

Sir Charles Gordon's presidential address at the annual meeting of the Bank of Montreal will exert a far-reaching influence upon economic conditions in Canada. Gordon's business situation in Canada, Sir Charles referred to the unbroken expansion of the first ten months of the year and extending back over a period of three years. The most remarkable advance being in the field of mining, and he said that Canadian activity was such that the Canadian banks took no open position on the high rates offered in New York; their money was fully employed in the Dominion "and every legitimate need of this country was taken care of at much lower rates than prevailed in the United States."

There is good ground for cause, however, in Sir Charles Gordon's statement that no inflation is apparent in any of the basic commodities of Canadian commerce. He spoke frankly of such unfavorable conditions as the decline in the value of the dollar, the fall in the price of gold and its slow movement, and the collapse of stock market prices. On the other hand, mining and industrial development in the Yukon and branch railway construction are beneficial influences; building is being at its peak, markets are being developed, and the development of electric power, while immigration shows a decline there is also a reduction in the loss through emigration. Coming to the trade, he said in his address, "I am not at all satisfied with the present state of affairs."

"Fundamental conditions are sound, and there is no reason for apprehension as to the ultimate future of Canada," he said.

General Manager's Address

Mr. H. B. Mackenzie, the general manager, surveyed the bank's operations of the past year and made a present diagnosis of actual economic conditions.

Mr. Mackenzie's analysis of the salient features of the balance sheet is not only convincing of a healthy position but also of the bank's business and of its strong liquid position, but it is testimony also of a determination to continue the same policy of energetic and consistent banking that is traditional of the institution. "Our customers in all lines of production and commerce," he said, "have, as always, been our chief care, and we have endeavored to supply them with the 2,000-ton vessel belonging to the Douglas Steamship Company, left Swallow for Hong Kong."

Early this morning they swarmed out and attacked the bridge. Members of the crew returned the fire and repulsed them. Third Officer K. A. Woodward died as the result of wounds and First Officer R. Perry also was wounded. Perry had been made to do for international finances what the League does for international law. SCOTT'S EMULSION FAMOUS OVER FIFTY YEARS

Commander Byrd Defended

British Explorers Cannot Understand Reported Charges Of Norwegian

Alman

British explorers came to the defense of Commander Richard E. Byrd, against the reported charges of Major Trygve Gran, Norwegian alman and explorer who was a member of the Scott Antarctic expedition.

Major Gran was quoted in a Copenhagen despatch to the Daily Mail, as saying that the terrible mountains which Commander Byrd described were a fantasy.

Captain R. G. England, who commanded the "Nimrod" of Shackleton's first expedition in 1907, said he could not understand Major Gran's report of the mountains.

"It is all the more extraordinary because Gran was one of Scott's men," said Capt. England. "It would be nothing short of a miracle if Scotts men did not see mountains near the South Pole. On the east there is the Queen Alexandra range, 15,000 feet in height, and on the west the Queen Maud range which is about the same height. These mountains have been actually surveyed and measured."

Captain William Obreck, who was a member of the Southern Cross Expedition of 1898-99 said: "It is well known there are mountains near the South Pole. Commander Byrd would probably see them from 100 miles away because of his height" in his airplane. He was a magnificent sight.

WALL STREET IS HARD HIT BY MARKET SLUMP

New York.—A sudden flood of selling, striking with terrific impact in the last hour of trading, carried scores of issues on the New York Stock Exchange down $2 to $22 a share.

It was the sharpest reaction since November 13, the low point reached in the October-November panic, when 420 issues crashed to new low levels for the year. Today sales were only 4,504,860 shares, but nearly 2,000,000 of those changed hands in the final hour.

Wall Street attributed the selling to a combination of unfavorable developments, including the publication of a statement by Robert Barham, well known economist, that the recent advance in prices which recovered 40 per cent. of the ground lost in the break, was only a rally in a "major bear-market"; the resumption of heavy gold exports to Great Britain, and the announcement of a sharp increase in the stocks of refined copper.

Mr. Barham correctly predicted the October-November break a few weeks before it actually happened, so that his latest comment on the market naturally aroused widespread uneasiness among investors and speculators alike. Heavy offerings of bearish professionals, who are reported to have made known their intentions to attack the markets, also was regarded as an important factor.

To Protect Level Crossings

Board Of Railway Commissioners Reserves Judgment After Investigations

Ottawa.—The Board of Railway Commissioners reserved judgment at the conclusion of its investigation into safety devices for level crossings. Producers of certain types of signals and automatic gates urged the board to adopt their product, while the representatives for the railway companies urged that the wig-wag, which was the best signal so far provided and should be left in use.

The very great importance which is placed on this hearing was indicated by the large number of representatives who were present, while associations, municipal bodies and provincial governments, as well as the many experts on behalf of the railways.

Arranging Trip To Orient

Plan Being Worked Out For Canadian Business Men

Montreal, Que.—A provisional itinerary for a businessman's trip to the Orient next year, under the auspices of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, has been issued by Dr. John W. Ross, chairman of the executive committee of the chamber. The party will leave Vancouver on October 16, 1930, and will return to Canada on December 13. Dr. Ross stated the chamber was collaborating with the Canadian legation in Tokyo, the Canadian Government trade commissioners in Shanghai, and the Japanese legation at Ottawa is working out the plans for the trip.

No Agreement Reached

Return Of Natural Resources To Alberta Still Undecided

Ottawa.—No agreement was reached at the conference between Premier Mackenzie King and members of the Dominion cabinet with Premier J. E. Brownlee, premier of Alberta, on return of the natural resources to Alberta. At the conclusion of the conference which lasted for two hours, Premier Brownlee said that the representations of Alberta had been made but would be put in writing form and sent to the Dominion Government.

Another Grain Appeal Board

Brandon, Man.—F. W. Williams will soon have a grain appeal board, much as are established in Calgary and Edmonton, states Dr. A. MacGillivray, member of the Board of Grain Commissioners. Such a board, to settle disputes over quality of grain, will shortly be established at the head of the lakes, he said.

Orders For Douglas Fir

London, England.—Orders for 200,000 railway sleepers of Canadian Douglas fir have been placed by the Great Western Railway Company. They will be used mainly in connection with the extension work approved by the government under the Depression Act of 1929, aiding the unemployment situation.

Three Fighting For Earldom Of Egmont

Legal Battle To Prove Claims Opens In London

London, Eng.—A cowboy, a baker, and an optician opened their legal battle here to prove their conflicting claims to the Earldom of Egmont.

The cowboy, Frederick Joseph Trewoyden, 56, for 28 years a rancher in Alberta, claims the title and the six children.

The baker is James William Peverell, 65, a resident of London, and the father of six children.

The optician is Robert Powall, an old-age pensioner of Haydock, Lancashire.

Whoever wins the three-cornered fight will become Earl of Egmont Baron Peverall, Baron Arden and Baron Lovell and Holland. The value of the estates to which he will succeed is estimated at from $500,000 to $1,000,000.

The rival claimants to the Egmont title and fortune have searched the family records back to 1735, when the title was granted. In the attempt to seize seven blank spaces in the Peverall genealogical table and thus substantiate their individual claims they have carried their investigations as far as Australia.

Three Perish In Arctic

Word Was Brought Out By Major L. T. Burwash

Ottawa, Ont.—News of the death of three natives of Scotland occurring in the Canadian Arctic was brought out by Major L. T. Burwash, of the Northwest Territories branch of the Department of the Interior, who arrived in Ottawa at the end of an 18-month trip, which took him along the northern coast of Canada from Alaska to Boothia Peninsula.

Donald Laidlow, of the Hudson's Bay Company, was swallowed up by a raging blizzard seven miles out of Gjoa Haven. Ian MacKay Christie, also of the Hudson's Bay Company, died at Barrow Post under similar circumstances after Lewis W. "Slim" Hader, engineer of the Ptarmigan, Major Burwash's boat, had half carried and half dragged him across the frozen wastes for 30 hours. Another man, recruited by the Hudson's Bay Company from Scotland, died at Coronation Gulf after he had broken through newly formed ice over, which he was walking. The freezing water gradually exhausted him.

Says All Are Insane

Dividing Line Between Sanity and Insanity Difficult To Detect

Windsor, Ont.—Everyone is insane, according to Dr. G. R. Cruckshanks, government inspector in insanity for the past 20 years, in a statement made here recently in an explanation of the remark he made in Supreme Court at Sandwith, before Mr. Justice J. M. McEvoy, that over 1,000 insane people walked the streets of Windsor.

"There is no line of demarcation between sanity and insanity," said Dr. Cruckshanks. "Some people are insane in the opinion of others, and yet might be regarded by the vast majority as being fully sane in their opinions. It is often a matter to be decided by judges rather than doctors. There is no real distinction between sanity and insanity. Some of our most valuable citizens are 'cranks' and yet their work in life is very useful."

The doctor, cont'd., however: "Some people, of course, have to have institutional care. We have to draw a line where we think that they will be benefited by such treatment."

Fort Chipewyan Gets Mail

Edmonton—December 11 was mail day at Fort Chipewyan far up in the northeast corner of Alberta. Two planes of Commercial Airways, Ltd., made the 160 mile jump from Fort McMurray to Chipewyan on Lake Athabasca. They carried the first consignment, half a ton of air mail under the Dominion plan which will bear letters to within the Arctic circle.

May Appoint Princess Mary

Victoria, B.C.—Intimation that Princess Mary is expected to be appointed Colonel-in-Chief of the 16th Canadian Scottish Regiment at an early date, was given by Col. Cyrus Peck, V.C., in an address here in which he reviewed his recent visit to England to attend the banquet tendered holders of the Victoria Cross.

Was Well Known Merchant

Vancouver, B.C.—Charles Hamilton Carroll, aged 77, well known as a merchant in various parts of Saskatchewan, until his retirement six months ago, is dead here. Funeral services will be held Dec. 12, with interment in Ocean View Cemetery. Mr. Carroll was born in Warwick, Lambton County, Ont.

Opposing U.S. Entry Into World Court

New Arrangement Does Not Satisfy Group In Senate

Washington, D.C.—Opposition to the new plan for United States entry into the World Court, as determined as that which met the original proposal for the adherence of the Washington Government, is developing in the senate.

The group of senators that three years ago voted against the United States becoming allied with the international tribunal, even under the reservations then attached, is apparently as much dissatisfied with the new arrangement as it was with the old.

How much of a fact in the senate's final vote this opposition will be, of course, remains to be determined, but notice has been given by the group, that the modification of the court's rules of procedure, affected by the new arrangement as it was with the old.

Mr. B. P. Barrel, who for the past year or two has been the very genial manager of the Greenhill hotel here, left for Calgary on Monday night,
where he takes over the management of the Yale Hotel. During his stay here, Mr. Barrel won many friends, who regret that he sees fit to leave the district, but the well wishes of all go with him.

COWLEY HAPPENINGSMr. and Mrs. Anderson, of Calgary, are visiting in the district at present.Owing to the deep snow, no auto have been moving in town for a couple of weeks now.Mr. and Mrs. Turner, of Calgary, are present guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Arthur Brockwell and family.

Mr. Heck Lemire and family and

Mr. Lou Lemire and family spent Christmas with relatives in Macleod.Mrs. Elsie Duffield, of Spring Ridge, spent Christmas with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Costes.Mrs. Robert Smaith has returned to her home at Vauxhall, after paying a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cowin and family.Miss Peggy Doyle, who has been laid up in the Hillcrest hospital with a broken collar bone for the past few weeks, is now home.The Misses Philis and Winnifred Porter have returned from Calgary normal school, to spend the holiday season with their parents.Miss Doris McEwen, who has been on the sick list for the past several weeks, is again in the Hillcrest hospital, where it was necessary for her to undergo an operation.Mr. Wycliffe made a trip to town from Heath Creek on Monday by sleigh. He was eight hours making the trip. He returned on Tuesday, after resting his team for a day.Mr. Austin Brownie, principal of the Cowley School, left on the night of the 23rd for his home in Calgary, where he is spending the Christmas holidays.A very successful Christmas entertainment was staged in the Tennessee schoolhouse on Thursday night.
Owing to the deep snow, nothing but sleighs and saddle horses were used as a means of attending the evening's jollities, but they got there just the same.Snow has been falling here almost every day, in a greater or lesser degree, for two weeks, till now it is two feet on the level and pretty well packed down. Stock men are beginning to face the situation in a serious manner. It is hoped that a change of conditions takes place soon. In some instances young stock is reported as dying of starvation.The L.O.O.F. hall was packed to capacity when a Christmas entertain-ment was staged on the evening of the 23rd, which was one of the best of its kind ever put on here. Mrs.
Bundy and Mrs. Littleton, who drilled the school children for the occasion, are deserving of a lot of credit, as they spent much time and energy, together with an undying interest in the undertaking. Some of the outstanding numbers on the programme were: "Mary Jane's Dream," "Absolutely No Man," "The Coming of the Snow Flakes," while recitations and choruses filled in between acts of a play. A very pleasing part on the programme was the music furnished by Miss Martha and Mr. Arthur Tustin, all of which held the crowd in expectation till the advent of the arrival of Santa Claus, who gave every girl and boy a gift, which he had carefully chosen for each of them.The annual meeting of the Cowley Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Tustian on Thursday, December the 19th. The early part of the meeting was taken up with routine business, when the constituency topics were discussed. After taking note of national health bulletin number forty-three, which dealt with the prevention and cure of rickets in young children, it was decided to get copies of this distributed through the district where they could do the most good. Caretaking of the cemetery received considerable consideration, at the end of which Mrs. Porter and S. Donald, the end of which Mrs. Porter and S. Donald;Welfare and Public Health, Mrs. A.
Murphy, 1st vice-president, Mrs. M. A. Murphy;
2nd vice-president, Mrs. George Porter; sec-

Mrs. Wilfred Fortier; while those on

WORLD HAPPENINGS
BRIEFLY TOLD

The Canadian Privy Council will more than likely discuss British Columbia's freight rates appeal on January 25.

J. W. Collins, secretary of the Department of Industry and Commerce, has been appointed New Zealand trade commissioner in Canada.

The Canadian Government has under consideration the establishment of several additional steamship services for the promotion of Canadian trade abroad.

The Washington foreign service buildings commission has allotted $1,000,000 for the purchase of land, and construction of a new legation and office buildings at Ottawa.

Ortental immigration into British Columbia in 1928 was 573, exactly the same number as in the previous year. The provincial immigration bureau announced the curious coincidence.

The British Government may extend the farm workers' plan. J. H. Thomas, Lord Privy Seal in the MacDonald Government, said when announcing that Canada had agreed to take 3,000 men next year.

Dr. August Stowe Gullen, Toronto, first woman physician to graduate from a Canadian university, was honored recently by the medical alumnae of the University of Toronto, who presented her portrait in oils to the Academy of Medicine.

Hugh Morrison, of Edmonton, 21-year-old son of the late Judge Morrison, of the Alberta district court, and Mrs. Morrison, has been selected as Alberta's Rhodes scholar for 1929. He was chosen from a list of four candidates.

To Cut Air Mail Schedule

Feasibility of Pick-up Device Proved By Tests

An airmail pick-up device, capable of receiving and discharging mail sacks while an airplane is in full flight, may cut existing air mail schedules between Canada and the United States. The American Air Transport Association, which says that tests of the device already made, promise its future adoption on many of the country's twenty-four air mail routes.

The tests being made at Youngstown, O., have proved the feasibility of catching a small bag of mail as it swings on the end of a 75 foot cable attached to a plane in full flight. The device consists of a V-shaped trap built in the ground. As the mail bag from the plane is caught in the trap, the device automatically attaches another bag, which is hauled up into the plane. Similar tests are being carried on in the receiving and discharging of mail at sea, the S.S. Leviathan.

The theory which postal officials, air mail operators and the contractors are working on, is that an airmail plane can leave an airport, swoop down on the pick-up device, haul the mail to a similar device near the post office in the city at the other end of the line, and then go on to that city's airtport.

Canada's Forest Areas

The total forest area of Canada, including the 82,250 square miles of forest on agricultural land, is estimated to be 1,151,451 square miles, and of this about 1,100,000 square miles is essentially forest land which can be utilized to the best advantage under forest.

Manitoba Tourist Industry

According to the latest figures Manitoba's tourist industry brought about $5,667,000 into the province, or an increase of about $1,000,000 over last year's figures. Convention visitors numbered 37,000, a gain of 8,500 over 1928.

Telephones To Ship At Sea

Can Communicate By Phone With Liners a Thousand Miles From Shore

Communication by telephone from man's land with ships at sea became a permanent, commercial project with the inauguration of service between New York and the liner Leviathan, 300 miles of shore bound for Europe.

President Walter Gifford, of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, formally opened the service by "ringing up" Captain Cunningham of the Leviathan.

The first actual commercial message to be delivered to the Leviathan by telephone came from Atlantic City, where, in his hotel room, William H. Rankin, advertising manager, chatted for five minutes with Sir Thomas Lipton, a passenger. Rankin is the first man to pay money for such a privilege.

The service was perfect, Rankin said. The noted yachtsman informed the advertising man that he will return to America next June, hoping to win America's Cup with the Shamrock V.

Telephone Company officials will communicate with ocean liners until good until the vessel is beyond 1,000 miles from land. The cost of a three-minute conversation between New York and the Leviathan is $21, with an additional $7 for each additional minute.

Pedestrians Wear Lights

Safety First Measure Is Adopted In The Streets of London

Irish drivers of automobiles soon will be yelling "Lights!" at pedestrians, if a growing custom becomes universal. Traffic has become so congested in London that drivers and passengers are ringing themselves with lights to warn motorists of their presence in the streets. One type of rear light consists of an electric light and reflector mounted on a luminous card worn on the back, and suspended from the shoulders by a cord.

Canada's Highways Important

The highways in Canada are becoming increasingly important year by year in the economic structure of the country. Over them is carried a very heavy traffic, both passenger and freight, especially between the large cities and towns. At the end of 1928 the total mileage of surfaced roads in Canada was 64,121.

Four motorists came into collision at the same time at Birmingham. That's the worst of chasing the same pedestrian!

How To Order Patterns

X-Ray Can Be Measured

To Determine Combined Effect Of Quantity and Quality

"X-rays may be measured as accurately as the pharmacist measures drugs in the drug store," said Dr. A. Mutchler, of New York, in a paper before the convention of the radiological society of North America, held recently in Toronto. "In modern medicine the greatest forward step was made when methods became known to weigh accurately a given drug and then also when its physiological effect was known."

The importance of these two determinations arises out of the fact that of drugs not only the quantity must be known, but also their power of effectiveness." The same holds true with regard to X-rays, for the measure of their effect depends neither upon their quantity or quality alone but on the combined measure of both."

A Record for Safety

Big Eastern Concern Operates Plant For Two Consecutive Years Without Lost-Time Accident

The great campaign for the prevention of accidents and the safeguarding of human life that is being carried on by energetic organizations and the press of the country has many tangible results that are definitely encouraging to the sponsors of safety movement.

Last week one of the large industrial concerns of Canada celebrated a full year of freedom from lost-time accidents, by giving a banquet to their more than 400 employees. This company, the Canadian National Carbon Company, Limited, whose head office and plant is located in Toronto, has devoted a great deal of time to educating their employees to the importance of working safely, and the Safety Committee is constantly devising guards for the machines, arranging time-tables of working hours and directing the process of manufacture so that each employee can work to the limit of his or her ability with the knowledge that they are safe from accidents that might cause loss of time and injury and reduce their earning capacity.

To make safety more impressive, the Union Carbide & Carbon Corporation, prior to each plant which operates for a full year without a lost-time accident, adds a handsome bronze shield. For each succeeding year that the record is maintained a bronze bar is added to the shield. It was to celebrate the second year in which this Canadian plant operated without a lost-time accident and earned the bronze bar that the Company gave their employees the banquet in the handsome, completely equipped cafeteria which is a part of the plant.

Besides the hundreds of employees who attended the banquet, a number of distinguished guests were present and addressed the gathering. These included Mr. R. B. Morley, general manager, Ontario Industrial Accident Prevention Association; Mr. W. M. Morris, head of Industrial Safety Department, National Carbon Industrial Trials, Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Mr. James Moran, general manager, Dominion Oxygen Company, Limited, Toronto; Mr. W. H. Winans, head of Industrial Relations Department, Union Carbide & Carbon Corporation, Assistant general manager, Canadian National Carbon Company, Limited, Toronto; Mr. W. E. Fritz, assistant works manager, National Carbon Company, Limited, Cleveland, Ohio.

The gathering was entertained by the Eveready Dance Band, which is heard regularly through the Company's own broadcasting station, CKNC, Toronto.

The sound of a bell which can be heard 45,200 feet through the water can be heard through the air only 450 feet.

Heavy Land Sales

C.P.R. Disposes Of 111,892 Acres In Saskatchewan In 11 Months

Sales by the land department of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the 11 months of 1929, in Saskatchewan, amounted to 111,892 acres, according to figures released by officials of the company at Saskatoon. This acreage was purchased by 627 settlers. The large majority of land purchases were made in the northern part of the province.

A further feature of the sales was in fact that practically all the farms purchased were acquired by new settlers.

WINDOLITE
The Improved
Glass Substitute

MADE IN ENGLAND

COMES WITH A MESSAGE OF HEALTH

THE sun is the all-powerful life producer, Nature's universal disinfectant and germ destroyer, as well as stimulant and tonic. WINDOLITE is the sun's most impervious ally.

Medical research has definitely proved that from the point of view of Health and Hygiene, the most effective among the sun's rays are the Ultra-Violet rays, which possess the greatest power for the prevention and cure of disease and debility.

Experiments have established that ordinary window glass does not allow the passage of Ultra-Violet rays, so that by using glass we are artificially excluding these vital healing rays. Therefore, the use of WINDOLITE has completely satisfied the long-felt want. Exhaustive experiments have conclusively proved that it is a most effective substitute for glass, that it freely transmits the Ultra-Violet rays and that it has a most beneficial effect on the growth and development of plants and chickens and on the well-being of cattle, enabled for the first time to have healthy light instead of darkness in their sheds.

Indeed, the discovery of WINDOLITE has during the last six years completely revolutionized gardening, given a new stimulus to poultry raising, increased the egg production and the capacity and fertility of chickens, has greatly improved the health of cattle and is now being used in domestic and household requirements.

The Singing Fool

SYNOPSIS

Al Stone, singing waiter at Blackie's New York night club, is loved by Grace, Farrel, the cigarette girl, but doesn't know it. He marries Molly, a ballerina, and with family as a singer of popular songs. When their baby, Junior, is about two years old, Molly elopes with John Petty, Al's best friend. She and her baby leave Al alone and sail for France. Al, broken by the loss, becomes a derelict. Months later he drifts into Blackie's place at night. Grace, Farrel, who still loves him, shames him into the promise to stage a come-back. They leave the club together shortly after dawn, but as they reach the street Al staggers.

CHAPTER XXVI.

"What's the matter?" Grace asked anxiously.

"It's just the effect of coming suddenly into the sunlight after all that has happened—back there. I'm not quite sure of myself and my directions. And I look so terribly down-and-out in this bright daylight."

It was true, Al's appearance was painfully seedy, but Grace dismissed that.

"We'll soon fix everything," she said confidently. "Just a—7-"

"If I'm to help you, you must give me your full confidence—tell where you're living and promise not to run away again."

"Well, Grace," Al answered earnestly, in the tone of a child who wants desperately to make a good impression. "I'll promise."

Grace smiled in spite of her attempt to appear a trifle stern.

"Well, then, come along."

As they strolled along the sunlit streets, with Grace occasionally sending a happy glance up into Al's face, she did not help but realize how their position had been reversed from the time when Al had first known her. Then she had been a frightened child and big, generous Al had protected her from the rowdy customers at Blackie's place. Now she was almost leading that same man as if he were a child, protecting him and encouraging him constantly. Her heart was ready to burst with pride and love.

"Where do you live?" she asked.

"I'm over there," said Al, vaguely indicating the East Side. "You know?" he paused irresolutely. "I hate for you to walk over there. It's such a dump. Just a rickety, cheap hotel—almost a flop house."

"That doesn't matter to me," said Grace quickly, "but if you'd rather go someplace, all right. Only don't think I've got any clothes or that like that you live, or anything like that. I just care about you."

There was no mistaking the look in Grace's eyes—Al realized at last that she loved him. Yet he marvelled at it—how could she love a down-and-out like him? He felt a rapid throb under his dilapidated vest, an emotion he had not known for a long time. He wanted to put his arms about her and tell her how much she meant to him, but he held book. This was neither the time nor the place.

"Before you go home," suggested Grace, "walk over to the Square with me. I live near there. We can sit on a bench and talk for a while. It will be good for you."

Al nodded. Presently they emerged from the canyons of streets to the wide green expanse of Washington Square.

"See how beautiful it is," said Grace. "I thought it would make you feel better. The leaves are turning red and yellow. And see how the green bushes look passing under the trees. Here, we'll try this bench."

Al sat down and relaxed, his eyes half closed. The autumn morning had turned down from between two skyscrapers, red and gold, sweeping across the level expanse and lighting the white arch. Italian alum children played on the south side, while in the northern part of the Square the children of the rich toddled about, under the watchful eyes of nurses.

"You say you live near here?" Al asked finally.

"Yes, just around the corner on Waverley Place. I have a room."

"Oh yes," Some hint of Grace's rather bleak and lonely life was home to Al in that one sentence—"I have a room?" She had a room but like thousands of other girls in the metropolis, she had no real home, no family, nothing much but dreams. Yet she lived bravely and without murmur, thought Al, while he—the sentinels remained silent.

He rose. "Grace, I'm going to the most wonderful girl in the world. I know it—at last. We'll talk a great deal about that later. But now you must go home and get some sleep. I'll go my way—and I'll see you tonight at Blackie's."

Grace stood before him, eyes glowing. "Thank you, Al," she whispered. She felt her hand seized. Suddenly he leaned over and kissed it.

"Bye-bye, little one, it's I who should do the thanking."

"You'll see me tonight, if clothes can make a difference, you'll see a different person. You just won't know Al Stone in his glad garments. And listen—just you set that hotel over there—the white one!"

"That will be my address tomorrow. Then we'll be near each other and I can walk home with you every morning from Blackie's place. Tell Blackie I'm coming over to try out with his show if he'll give me a job."

Al was walking away, with Grace staring after him. He strode along briskly now and when he reached the edge of the Square he turned to wave good-bye to the intent little figure. For a moment Grace waited after he had disappeared, then she turned the other way toward her own home. In his glad garments. And listen—just you set that hotel over there—the white one!"

For a moment Grace waited after he had disappeared, then she turned the other way toward her own home. In his glad garments. And listen—just you set that hotel over there—the white one!"

Rev. Father Harrington received a telegram on Christmas Day from his old home in Ontario, to the effect that his mother was critically ill, and left here by last night's train.

The most kindly words received by us during the Christmas season were contained in a letter from a Scotch friend, to the effect that "While taking a drink this morning, I thought of you." One can scarcely imagine the influence our friend's letter had upon us, and it was the nearest we ever were to being intoxicated through the efforts of a Scotchman.

W. A. Vaughan, local district representative for the Western-Canada Wholesale Co., is spending the Christmas vacation at Portland, Oregon.

The Christmas atmosphere was made much the merrier through enlivening Christmas airs from the Bellevue silver band during the afternoon of Christmas Day. The band arrived by auto and practically serenaded the entire town. The thanks and heartfelt well wishes of the community are accorded the Bellevue musicians for their timely and thoughtful act.

Little Miss C.P.R. is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Peterson, North Vancouver, B.C.

Evidently all Scotchmen are not born in Scotland. Last week we received a greeting card, sent at the joint expense of Jimmy Amatto and Alex Nemrava from Vancouver, wishing us a "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year for 1930, 1921, 1932, 1933, 1934 and 1935."

On Saturday night, a few of the regular guests of the Greenhill hotel, along with several friends, met to wish Mr. C. B. Barret God-speed, and through Mr. George Sangster, made him a presentation, expressing regrets of his many friends on his having decided to leave Blairmore, but wishing him every success in his new sphere.

It would be a poor result of all our anguish and our wrestling, if we won but ourselves at the end of it; if we could return to the same blind loves, the same self-confident blame, the same light thoughts of human suffering, the same frivolous gossip over blighted human lives, the feeble sense of the Unknown toward which we have sent irrepressible cries in our loneliness. Let us rather be thankful that our sorrows live in us as an indestructible force, only changing its form as force do, and passing from pain into sympathy—George Eliot.
